

I oppose the weakening of Indiana's telephone law by the Consumer Bankers Association. I do not like the idea of being called by these places, I feel I pay for my telephone for my personal use not for their use to promote their businesses.